Wie geht's? focuses on the essential elements of effective communication. By the end of the course, students should have acquired a degree of competence in the four language skills and gained insights into life in the German-speaking countries.

1. Aural Comprehension
   Students should be able to understand German that is spoken at moderate conversational speed and that deals with everyday topics.

2. Speaking
   Students should be able to converse with speakers of German in everyday situations.

3. Reading
   Students should be able to read nontechnical German of moderate difficulty on various aspects of German culture and life.

4. Writing
   Students should be able to write simple sentences on topics presented in the text.

5. Cultural Insights
   Students should acquire basic knowledge about the countries where German is spoken, and become aware of essential differences and similarities between these countries and the United States.
