Course Objectives
The principle purpose of this class is to acquaint students with the basic issues and approaches of philosophy. This course will also expose students to some of the most influential authors and texts in the Western philosophical tradition. Students will be actively involved in examining the impact of various philosophical stances on their own lives and the lives of others.

We will base our discussions on close reading of the assigned texts as well as oral reports on historical and critical information. We also will aim to investigate the impact of philosophical principles on the depiction of life in one novel a number of (international and US) movies.

Every class member is strongly encouraged to voice his or her personal opinion and to actively participate in class discussions.

This course can be taken for partial fulfillment of the general education distribution requirements.

Attendance

Attendance is required. Students who miss more than two classes without university-approved excuses will lower their final grade by half a grade; those who miss more than three will lower their grade by a full grade. There will be no passing grade for students who miss more than 30% of classes without university-approved excuses. Excessive tardiness will also result in a grade reduction.

Cell Phone Free Environment

This class room is a “cell phone free environment” from 9:35 to 10:50 p.m. Students who use their cell phones during class will lower their final grade by half a grade.

Academic Integrity

MTU’s Academic Integrity Policy defines plagiarism as “knowingly copying another’s work and calling it one’s own or not giving proper credit or citation.” The penalties for plagiarism or other forms of cheating range from receiving a failure grade on work in question to expulsion from the university. Students who have any questions about the issue, or who have questions about whether they have cited their sources properly, should consult the instructor or a coach in the Writing Center.

MTU’s Policy on Discrimination and Harassment

MTU complies with all federal and state laws regarding discrimination, including the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA). If you have a disability and need a reasonable accommodation for equal access to education or services at MTU, please call Dr. Gloria Melton, Associate Dean of Students (487-2212). For other concerns about discrimination, you may contact your advisor, department chair, or the Affirmative Action Office (487-3310).
