REQUIRED TEXTS:
Personnage, 3e édition, Oates et Dubois, Houghton-Mifflin, 2003
Personnage: Cahier d’Activités

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND GOALS:
This is an intermediate-level course designed to reinforce proficiency in French grammar and vocabulary, and to build knowledge about French and Francophone cultures through literary readings and other activities. The course aims to refine communicative competency in all four skill areas (listening, speaking, reading and writing in French).

In-class activities focus on active language use, which involves interacting meaningfully with other class participants and developing communicative strategies. The cultural and literary component of the course centers on the following regions: France, Québec, Tahiti, Algeria, Morocco, and Tunisia. Your professor is committed to your success in this course! You are encouraged to meet with her during office hours or at another mutually convenient time for extra help or to assess your progress in the course.

GRADING:
Written Exams, Quizzes 50%
Homework 20%
Compositions 10%
Attendance, Participation, Lab, Café Français 15%
Oral Exams 5%

Grading Scale:
A = 93-100 %  AB = 88-92%  B = 83-87%  BC = 78-82%  C = 73-77%  CD = 68-72%  D = 60-67%  F = 0-59%

WRITTEN EXAMS AND QUIZZES:
Five chapter exams will be given on Thursdays (see Exam Dates below). The exams are achievement tests, enabling you to demonstrate the skills and information you have learned in each unit of the course (including a chapter from Personnage as well as all other material covered in class). Occasional unannounced short quizzes will be given to assess your knowledge of vocabulary and grammatical structures and your basic comprehension of the readings.

ORAL EXAMS:
In addition to ongoing informal assessments of your speaking skills in French, two oral exams will be administered. You will schedule these individually with your instructor.

HOMEWORK AND COMPOSITIONS:
Homework includes assignments from our textbook and workbook as well as other short writing assignments. Homework assignments will be checked or collected, on an unannounced basis, at the BEGINNING of the class period only. The two assigned compositions will provide an opportunity for the creative application of skills you have learned. No late work will be accepted.

ATTENDANCE:
Because success in this course requires interaction among class participants, unexcused absences will lower your grade. Two (2) unexcused absences are allowed, after which your Attendance/Participation Grade will be lowered by 5% for each unexcused absence.
There is a strict NO MAKE-UP policy for assigned work, including homework, quizzes and exams. A grade of zero will be given for any such missed work. Excused absences (such as those resulting from an official MTU activity) must be documented in advance, and work, including exams, must be completed prior to the anticipated absence. In the event of an unforeseen emergency or serious illness, it is your responsibility to contact your instructor promptly, and to supply adequate documentation.

CLASS PARTICIPATION:
Participation includes attendance and promptness, preparation, and involvement in conversations, skits, role-playing and other in-class activities. (Please see section above on Attendance.) The use of electronic gadgets in class is strictly prohibited. Cell phones must be turned off.

LAB / CAFÉ FRANÇAIS:
In order to develop all four language skills, we will be using a variety of multimedia tools, including lab CDs, videos, CD-ROMs, and websites. You will need to use resources in the Language Lab (Walker 114) in order to complete some homework assignments. You will use log sheets to record your hours. In addition, you are required to participate regularly in the French-language conversation group, Le Café Français. Details will be provided in class.

NOTE:
MTU complies with all federal and state laws and regulations regarding discrimination, including the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA). If you have a disability and need a reasonable accommodation for equal access to education or services at MTU, please call Dr. Gloria Melton, Associate Dean of Students, 487-2212.
