Course Description/Overview

The emphasis in this course is twofold – building vocabulary and learning and applying grammatical principles. Tests and quizzes will evaluate students’ proficiency in these areas. It is also assumed that students will gain proficiency simply through diligent work. As a result, points are given for homework, attendance, and other work outside of class.

Course Learning Objectives

The primary goal of this course is to provide opportunities for students to develop proficiency in communicative skills. Students will learn to speak German, understand what is said, read authentic texts and materials and learn to write in German. By the end of two semesters of German, students should have acquired a degree of competence in the four language skills and familiarized themselves with many aspects of German culture.

I: Incomplete; given only when a student is unable to complete a segment of the course because of circumstances beyond the student's control. A grade of incomplete may be given only when approved in writing by the DEAN.

X: Conditional, with no grade points per credit; given only when the student is at fault in failing to complete a minor segment of a course, but in the judgment of the instructor does not need to repeat the course. It must be made up within the next semester in residence or the grade becomes a failure (F). A (X) grade is computed into the grade point average as a (F) grade.

Exams and Quizzes

This term, we will cover Chapters 5 through 8 in the textbook. There will be an exam at the end of each chapter and a vocabulary quiz in the middle of each chapter. There will be a total of 4 exams (worth 50 points each) and 4 quizzes (worth 20 points each). There will be no final exam.

Participation and Attendance

Students are expected to fully participate in all class activities. Five points will be given per class period based on attendance and full participation. If you are not in class, you cannot receive these 5 points.

Homework

There will be homework assigned nearly every class period. This homework will be turned in and graded. Each assignment will be worth 5 points.
Semester Project

There will be a final project worth 50 points. The first draft will be due March 26th and will be worth 10 points. The final written product will be worth 20 points and will be due at the end of the semester. Your presentation of your project will be worth 20 points and will take place either April 21st or 23rd.

Language Lab

(114 Walker - http://www.hu.mtu.edu/hu_dept/facilities/lang_lab.html)

Forty-two points will be earned based on 28 hours in the Language lab. You must LOG your hours in the language lab and turn them into the consultant. You may not wait until the last 2 weeks to get these hours in.

The language lab is designed to be a resource to help you improve your German skills outside of class time. There are three primary resources in the language lab: (1) the lab consultants, (2) the CDs for the workbook, and (3) reference materials. One third of the lab consultants are experts in German, so they are a very valuable resource if you need help studying, with your homework, or just want some conversational practice. YOU WILL NEED TO USE THE LAB FOR SOME OF YOUR ASSIGNMENTS. Also, there are German movies and internet access (for online research/homework/help).

In addition to doing their assigned homework, students in my class are expected to spend at least two hours per week practicing German (Audio program, software, on-line activities, German language tutors, etc.) either in the language lab or at home. Whether for work done at home or in the lab, students must fill out the time sheets available in the lab and turn them in (in the lab) to receive lab credit.

Pluspunktabend

There will be an extra credit evening every Monday (starting January 25th) from 6pm to 7pm. By attending and participating, you can add 5 points per bonus evening to your point total. We will play games in German, watch videos in German, listen to music in German, and converse in German. Every attempt must be made to speak in German instead of English.

Late Assignments

I usually accept late homework until the exam for that chapter. For example, homework from Chapter 5 can be submitted until the day of the Chapter 5 exam. After that, no credit will be given.

Collaboration/Plagiarism Rules

Collaboration is generally acceptable on homework, but the homework turned in must be the student's own individual work and may not be copied. Collaboration on the Semester Project is required. Collaboration on exams and quizzes is not allowed. Cell phones, Blackberries, iPods, PDAs, or any other electronic devices are not to be used in the classroom.
