Course Description
This course is designed for ESL students to develop writing skills that meet the requirements of college level courses. Students will learn to write different rhetorical modes of paragraphs (descriptive, comparison, cause and effect) through multiple drafts and revisions. Students will also write an academic essay under the close guidance of the instructor. A variety of activities, such as text analysis, group work, class discussion, peer review, and individual session with the instructor, are used to reinforce and assess students’ writing skills. For a complete list of course objectives, please see Student Learning Outcomes attached at the end of this document.

Course Policies

Come to class every day.

- If you miss a class, you should contact me and tell me why you were absent. If you do not contact me about your absence, you may be reported to IPS, and your visa status may be affected.
- After three unexcused absences, your final course grade will be lowered 5% for each absence. Excused absences include: if you are sick with a doctor’s note, religious holidays, etc. You can see a full list of excused absences here: http://www.mtu.edu/dean/conduct/policy/attendance/
- Make up tests, quizzes, and presentations will not be given unless arranged in advance. You should ask a classmate about homework so that you do not miss any assignments.

Come to class on time.

- If you arrive to class late three times, it will be counted as one unexcused absence.
- If you are 10 minutes late or more, you will be marked absent for the day.

Hand in homework on time

- Homework is due at the assigned deadline. Late homework will receive a 0.
Participate in class.

1. Use only English in this classroom, so everyone can understand what you are saying.
2. Turn your cell phone to vibrate or silent. Leave all other electronic devices at home. Texting in class is against MTU rules.
3. Come prepared with all of your class materials and homework completed.
4. Actively participate in class. Respect others by listening attentively while they are talking.

Don’t plagiarize.

- Use your own words. A copied or plagiarized assignment will receive a 0. This is very serious. Plagiarism could result in suspension or expulsion from MTU. If you have questions about plagiarism, ask one of your instructors for help.
- Academic regulations and procedures are governed by University policy. Academic dishonesty cases will be handled in accordance the University's policies. You are required to read the university’s Academic Integrity policy listed below.
