Course Description
This course is designed for ESL students to enhance their understanding and usage of English grammar in both written and spoken contexts. Students will learn to analyze different elements, aspects, and structures of English grammar, and form tentative rules to correct their own grammar mistakes. A variety of activities, such as text analysis, role play, quizzes, and presentations are used to reinforce and assess students’ understanding and usage of grammar. For a complete list of course objectives, please see Student Learning Outcomes attached at the end of this document.

Course Policies

Come to class every day.

- If you miss a class, you should contact me and tell me why you were absent. If you do not contact me about your absence, you may be reported to IPS, and your visa status may be affected.
- After three unexcused absences, your final course grade will be lowered 5% for each absence. Excused absences include: if you are sick with a doctor's note, religious holidays, etc. You can see a full list of excused absences here: http://www.mtu.edu/dean/conduct/policy/attendance/
- Make up tests, quizzes, and presentations will not be given unless arranged in advance. You should ask a classmate about homework so that you do not miss any assignments.

Come to class on time.

- If you arrive to class late three times, it will be counted as one unexcused absence.
- If you are 10 minutes late or more, you will be marked absent for the day.

Hand in homework on time

- Homework is due at the assigned deadline. Late homework will receive a 0.
Participate in class.

1. Use only English in this classroom, so everyone can understand what you are saying.
2. Turn your cell phone to vibrate or silent. Leave all other electronic devices at home. Texting in class is against MTU rules.
3. Come prepared with all of your class materials and homework completed.
4. Actively participate in class. Respect others by listening attentively while they are talking.

Don’t plagiarize.

- Use your own words. A copied or plagiarized assignment will receive a 0. This is very serious. Plagiarism could result in suspension or expulsion from MTU. If you have questions about plagiarism, ask one of your instructors for help.
- Academic regulations and procedures are governed by University policy. Academic dishonesty cases will be handled in accordance the University's policies. You are required to read the university’s Academic Integrity policy listed below.

Disabilities

If you have a disability that could affect your performance in this class or that requires an accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act, please see me as soon as possible so that we can make appropriate arrangements. The Affirmative Action Office has asked that you be made aware of the following:

Michigan Tech complies with all federal and state laws and regulations regarding discrimination, including the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. If you have a disability and need a reasonable accommodation for equal access to education or services at Michigan Tech, please call the Dean of Students Office, at 487-2212. For other concerns about discrimination, you may contact your advisor, department head or the Affirmative Action Office, at 487-3310.
