CLASS EXPECTATIONS AND GRADING
Attendance: Attendance is expected and come to class on time. You are considered absent if 1) you are more than 15 minutes late and/or 2) you are unprepared for class (reading is not complete and physical reading is not in class). If you cannot make class contact me ahead of time AND connect with a peer to get up to speed on what will be/was covered in class.
You are required to sign in when you attend class. You may miss three sessions without penalty. For every class after the first three, I will lower your final grade by fifty points. Seven absences constitute automatic failure of the course.

Class participation: Participation is one of the most important components to the success of the course. You are expected to come to class on time, reading carefully and critically, bringing printed out readings to class, posting on the blog before class, and being prepared to engage with the ideas and your class. Class investigations are participatory assignments that include critical and active discussions as well as in-class collaborative work.

To preserve an open environment, our classroom is one of mutual respect between everyone in the room. Any behavior that creates a hostile classroom environment will not be tolerated and the party(ies) involved will be asked to leave the class. Since each classroom is made up of individuals, each student's questions or concerns will be responded to in an individual manner rather than with a blanket response.

Assignment Expectations: All readings, blog comments, and papers are to be completed prior to class and solely by the student (unless other instructed as collaborative work). You are expected to submit assignments on Blackboard by the deadlines listed. All typed work is due at the beginning of class unless otherwise noted. In order to be considered for a grade, all assignments are to be complete and must conform to MLA, APA, or Chicago style documentation and format (word-processed, Times New Roman, 12 point legible font, double-spacing, with one inch margins) or online documentation format (in-text hyperlinks, embedded images, etc.). Late assignments will only be accepted with the specific, prior agreement of the instructor. No exceptions.

In terms of minor assignments, you are expected to post a weblog entry for each reading assigned in class, whether or not you choose to attend the in-class session. To receive a B on the weblog portion of your grade, your entries must be complete and posted in a timely fashion. To receive an A your entries must also be well-written with strong evidence for support. As a rule posts should be about 2-3 paragraphs in length. Blog posts should be responses to the readings and/or discussions.

In terms of major assignments, you will be required to complete a Digital Media Analysis (100 points), an Access and Literacy paper (100 points), Digital Production (100 points), and a Digital Distribution paper with peer critiques for each assignment.

Grade Scale: Your points will be translated into percentages; your final grade will be calculated according to the following percentage scale:

- 100-93 A
- 92-87 AB
- 86-83 B
- 82-77 BC
- 76-73 C
- 72-67 CD
- 66-60 D
- 59-below F

I reserve the right to give unannounced quizzes or assignment at anytime to test the preparedness of the class as a whole. These minor exercises will make up the remaining hundred points of the class total.

Note about Incompletes: The mark of 'I' is inappropriate if, in the instructor's judgment, it will be necessary for the student regularly to attend subsequent sessions of the class. I will give an Incomplete only in cases of extreme emergency.

After reviewing the grade breakdown above, students should choose an overall grade goal that illustrates the effort he or she plans to put into all his or her assignments. I am an instructor with high expectations. If you intend to earn an "A" in this class, expect to work hard. I encourage you to ask questions about each assignment and bring in drafts of papers to ensure you meet expectations.

If you wish to discuss a grade on any assignment or presentation, you must wait 24 hours after I return the critique AND come to my office to discuss your concern. This time will allow us to process any relevant information and prepare for our discussion. If you approach me in class with a concern I will refer you to my office hour and appointment times. Also, according to the Family Education Right to Privacy Act (FERPA) any student’s grade will not be discussed with anyone other than the individual student (including family members).

The Writing Center: The MTU Writing Center (Walker Arts & Humanities Room 107) is a superb resource. The staff is willing to help no matter what stage you’re at in your paper, from brainstorming to putting on the final touches.
