HU6010 Special Topics in Communication: Advanced Cultural Studies
(Identity: primarily gender and the body)
Professor Jennifer Daryl Slack
Summer 2014
Credits: 3.0
Meeting times will be arranged. 3–6 hours per week

Catalogue Course Description
In depth examination of topics in communication.

Course Goals
To develop advanced proficiency in cultural studies, with an emphasis on identity, gender, and the body.

Requirements
Readings (see below)
For each reading: reading notes, short summary with a consideration of implications.

Grading
The work will be evaluated and graded based on 1) evidence of completion of required readings, 2) evidence of depth of understanding (both orally and in written materials), 3) evidence of ability to adopt a cultural studies position in relation to students’ own projects.

Course Policies
All assignments must be completed to receive a final grade. The syllabus may be changed during the semester to meet instructional needs; any changes will be discussed with the students.

MTU complies with all federal and state laws and regulations regarding discrimination, including the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA). If you have a disability and need a reasonable accommodation for equal access to education or services at MTU, please call Associate Dean of Students (ext 2212). For other concerns about discrimination, contact your advisor, department chair, or the Affirmative Action Office (ext 3310).
Readings

